'Glee' filming in Times Square!

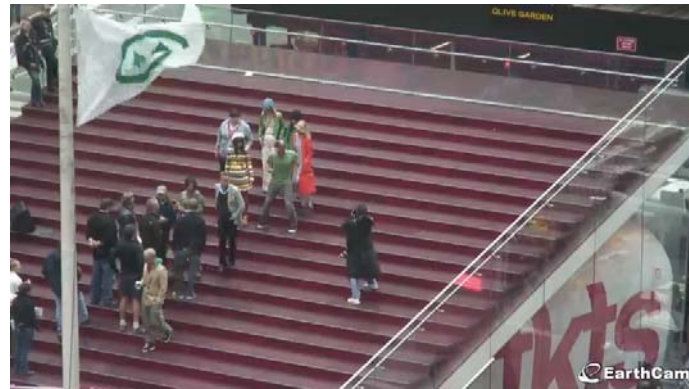

April 25, 2011

As we were first to report, the cast of Glee is filming in NYC all week, at many of the city's most famous landmarks, and today they are filming in Times Square!

The New Directions (yes, ALL of them!) are currently filming on the steps outside the TKTS Booth in Times Square. You can watch the entire shoot on this webcam:

Many of our readers have been watching the shoot in person this morning and are reporting that you can't get too close, but you can still see the cast performing (from a distance).

We also heard that Cory and Mark were spotted inside the Lids store in Times Square this afternoon too!

The cast may be moving to another location later today too. There are No Parking signs posted around 51st and 8th Ave and on Hudson (around Christopher St) for filming today as well.

There are also signs posted around 61st-62nd between Broadway and Columbus AND 71st between Broadway and Columbus for tomorrow. Be on the look out for "Untitled 20th Century Fox Project" signs around NYC, those are the signs for Glee!
